

JOLLY BOYS OUTING: THURSDAY 12TH MAY 2005

BURY ST EDMUNDS

Home to the now expanded 'super regional' brewing empire of Green King, whose beers sell in nearly all of the towns pubs, some of which are Cask Marque accredited, & one is on CAMRA's National Inventory of Pub Interiors. Very few serve 'guest' Ales.

All pubs selected should have a selection from the undermentioned cask conditioned Ales, unless stated.

No prior visit was carried out, on this occasion but pubs have been chosen from 'local knowledge', CAMRA branch meeting places and the 2005 G.B.G.

Green King beers include:- Green King I.P.A. - 3.6%, Ruddles Best Bitter - 3.1%, Morelands Original Bitter - 4%, Ruddles County - 4.3%, Green King Abbot Ale - 5%, Morelands Old Speckled Hen - 5.2%, Green King XX Mild - 3%.

Wetherspoons quit the town 5 years ago, but all things being even if you can't get a decent pint in a brewing town, where can you?

CULTURE:

An historic market town named after the last King of East Anglia. There is much of interest including the Cathedral, the Athenaeum, - the one time centre of the town's social life - , a Georgian theatre, a Queen Anne mansion and a museum in a twelfth century flint and stone building.
