Jolly Boys Visit to Marsden Thursday 16th August 2007

Culture :-

Loads – See the National Trust leaflet (available from the Tourist Information office). The object of the "exercise" is to "do" the NT trail: oh yes and get a few ales in.

The Itinerary:-

On arrival at Marsden, for those arriving pre 11.00, do the leisurely walk until the pubs open at 12.00 then all eating and drinking at the Riverhead or the Railway as the Tunnel End Inn only opens at lunchtimes on Fridays and weekends. It is possible that we can arrange for the Tunnel End to open specially but we cannot count on this as we could only call in for an hour max.

For those who do not want to walk the Stalybridge Station Buffet starts to sell beer at 11.00 so you could start with a beer there and travel on the 11.42 to Marsden in time for opening there or fit in a rapid walk to the tunnel end and back. Similar arrangements apply to anyone coming from the east who could call in at the Train Station Tavern, Huddersfield. Return journey via Manchester allows for beer at Stalybridge while changing trains as usual or for anyone going east at Huddersfield.

The Pubs

- 1. Marsden Riverhead Brewery Tap, Spring St. out of station down t'hill bear left turn right. Opens at 1200. Now does food.
- 2. Marsden Station opposite the station 4 real ales, good selection of food including £3.75 OAP meals. This is optional as a second pub or in case the Riverhead have sacked their chef or something.
- 3. Stalybridge Station Buffet, Platform 1. 0161 303 0007, Boddingtons, Flowers IPA, Guests. Food available.
- 4. Huddersfield Train Station Tavern 01484 511058 Guest Beers East end of platform
