TERRELL

By popular request and because Matlock Bath was a bummer we return once again to revisit some favourite pubs from past visits and untried establishments all of which are listed in the current Good Beer Guide.

WHAT YOU MAY OR MAY NOT KNOW ABOUT DERBY

- Derby lies on the West bank of the River Derwent close to the junction with the Trent.
- In the early 1700's England's first silk mill was established in Derby.
- In 1750 the first porcelain factory opened
- Its cathedral tower is the second tallest in England standing 212ft high.
- Derby's Arboretum was Britain's first public park.

- For early birds we start in the alternative Wetherspoon's The Babington Arms, Babington Lane. This J.D.W. is according to the GBG possibly the best

Wetherspoon's in the country. (We will see)
DEPARTURE When the cathedral bells toll eleven.

- Flowerpot 25 King Street 11-10 to 11-50
Headless, Oakham Bishops Farewell, Whim and guests.

- Yel Olde Dolphin 6/8 Queens Street 11-55 to 12-55
Adnams, Blacksheep and guests

- Alexandra Hotel 203 Siddals Road 13-05 to 13-50
