

Jolly Boys visit to Nottingham 28/3/08

This visit was down on the agenda as Mansfield and Nottingham Trams. However a recce to Mansfield wasn't too promising, apart from a Weatherspoons the other GBG pub, although friendly enough, served up an inferior pint of Batemans XB and it took 5 minutes to pull a pint of the guest. This rerun of the Nottingham Trams is therefore offered:

An all day ticket on the tram cost £2.40. Access to the tram is via the centre bridge on Nottingham Station.

First stop is Market Place where there is a Weatherspoons for early birds, and pub no 1..
