

Jolly Boys Waterloo Sunset Thursday 17th December 2015

Probably the most expensive trip the Jolly Boys will have. Today's whip will probably use up all your Christmas bonus and more. When supping your £ 4.60 pint in the Kings Arms, looking at the houses over the road, two up/two down terraced selling for £1.2 million, you understand why there was a London Allowance!

An inability to resist the Ian Allan bookshop will add to your expenses but some temptation has been removed, as the knock-down price book shop which used to be on the corner of Lower Marsh & Waterloo Road has been knocked down.

Getting There & Back:-

Start and return from Waterloo Station.

If intending to start at The Ring, Southwark station is just over the road from the pub.

Food :-

£8 breakfast at the Fire Station. See the menu on their web site.

Very good Thai food at the Kings Arms.

Back up lunch stop will be the Wellington Hotel

Bookings :-

Hopefully Jodie has written us into the "diaries" of the Ring and the Kings Arms.

Charlene at the White Hart would have been delighted to see us any other day but the 17th when she has a booking for 60 odd.

The Itinerary :-

Gathering up for earlies will be the Fire Station or after 10.00 ( if open) the Wellington.

The longest walking time between pubs is 10 – 12 minutes.

The full itinerary is on the next page
