

Jolly Boys - Eastbourne

Thursday 7th February 2016

The Jolly Boys 2nd visit to Eastbourne is a cut down version of the 2012 trip. Compared with that trip the Terminus has shut down, a shame because it has been a good town centre pub in the past, and the Buccaneer is deemed too far to walk (and it is the wrong time of year to get the grandstand view of the ladies playing tennis).

The gathering point will be the Cornfield Garage (Wetherspoons). From here it is hoped to visit all three pubs in Little Chelsea and finish up at the London & County (a rare GBG Lloyds No 1. Hopefully everything will be so good there will not be time to visit the final pub!!!!

Food is theoretically available at all the pubs but the Dolphin is probably the best bet (It is even smart enough for my wife to visit for lunch).

The order of visiting 3, 4 & 5 will depend on the actual opening times on the day.

There are other pubs, particularly in the Old Town, but they are well spread out and need use of bus passes.

Getting There :- (A selection of trains – see published timetables for full service)

NB When travelling from London check you are in the right part of the train – they tend to split at Haywards Heath.
