

The cost of the buffet will be £10 a head and attendees will be responsible for their own drinks, or do a "normal" kitty, on the day, if that's preferred. Pints are Oxfordshire Club prices (less than £4 at the last time I drank there two months ago).

The Club opens at midday and the buffet will be served at 1300. Anyone arriving significantly earlier than 1200 can nip across the road to the pub for a taster.

The Club is very close at hand - out of the station, turn left and walk along about 30 yards and its on the left.
