

Jolly Boys outing to Kingston upon Thames^{18th}

July 2024 BG/MC

The Royal Borough of Kingston upon Thames is a borough in southwest London, the main town being Kingston upon Thames. and is the oldest Royal Borough.

Our last visit to Kingston was in 2019 and this time we visit much the same pubs. Sadly many have reduced variety and quantity, however still worth a visit we hope. Food and beer are both somewhat expensive in all our venues. You may wish to make sure of a good breakfast and/or eat lunch on the hoof at one of the many food outlets on the way round. The best pub option for food is probably the Druid Head.

Getting to Kingston

Three direct train services available from London Waterloo.

Waterloo - Kingston via Clapham Junction and Wimbledon (shortest route)
2 services (30 min intervals)

Waterloo - Kingston via Richmond
1 service (30 min interval)

Itinerary

NB.* The Boaters Inn (Pub number 5) might be considered optional as it is a 10-15 minute walk along the Thames path. This would be a pleasant walk on a nice sunny day but may not be desirable on a wet day it also suffers from a reduced beer variety. I suggest we take a collective view on the day. Perhaps have another pint in the Druids Head
