Jolly Boys trip to Redhill Beer Festival

Thursday 31 October 2024

PLEASE NOTE THE CHANGE TO THE DATE

As my local beer festival is taking place just one week before the programmed trip to Reigate, I have decided that a Beer Festival is a good alternative as it avoids me having to sort out the pubs and plan around 1200hrs openings, etc. 6 of us attended last years festival and a good time was had by all.

Venue – Merstham Village Hall. This is located a very short walk (150m) from Merstham Station. On leaving the station cross over from the down platform and walk up the road on your right-hand side.

Timings – The doors open at 1200hrs but if you want to sit and enjoy your beer, I would suggest getting there by 1130hrs and join the queue. I am planning on getting there around 1115hrs!!

Cost - £4, for card carrying CAMRA members £3. There is a £4 refundable deposit for glasses at all sessions.

Beers on offer – over 70 beers are usually available – the full list will be published, or you can look at emscamra.org.uk/festival nearer the time.

Food – Hot and cold food will be available.
